

Legal Democratic Identity and Constitutional Defense of Democracy

Štefan Danics, Jan Šlajs

Abstract: Authors firstly clarify a term “democratic identity” as key category of defensible democracy. They further compare constitutions of democratic states that have experiences with right-wing or left-wing totalities, with the aim to evaluate how their current democratic government system is constitutionally guaranteed.

Keywords: Legal democratic identity, democratic culture and practice, solid constitutional core as a guarantee of democracy, constitutional opportunities of right’s and freedom’s erogation, defensible democracy.

JEL Classification: K140, K400, K 420
